

Social Justice Division
Law Enforcement Misconduct Investigative Office – New York City
Investigative Analyst
Reference No. LEM_NYC_IA_6365

Application Deadline is February 28, 2025

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced and motivated candidate for the position of Investigative Analyst (IA) in the Law Enforcement Misconduct Investigative Office (LEMIO) in New York City. LEMIO is a first-of-its-kind statewide oversight body charged with identifying and addressing systemic police misconduct. LEMIO seeks to improve the effectiveness of law enforcement, promote public safety, protect the civil rights and liberties of New Yorkers, as well as enhance transparency and strengthen public trust in the criminal justice system. This position is located in New York City and reports to the Senior Investigative Analyst.

The Office was created by the New York State Legislature in June of 2020 in the wake of the killing of George Floyd and its implementing legislation went into effect April 2021. The Legislature’s intent was to create a “strong, independent office” which would improve the current police oversight structure “by providing broad jurisdiction, independence, and extra scrutiny where existing systems may be failing.”

LEMIO has a broad mandate to investigate “allegations of corruption, fraud, use of excessive force, criminal activity, conflicts of interest, or abuse” as well as patterns and practices of police misconduct. LEMIO will be responsible for investigating complaints, examining departmental policies and procedures, and making recommendations for reform, including disciplinary action.

Duties:

- Managing a caseload of active investigations, both independently and in coordination with LEMIO attorneys;
- Reviewing intakes to identify complaints and allegations of police misconduct, including identifying patterns, and making recommendations to escalate/prioritize matters;
- Developing investigative plans;
- Reviewing, analyzing, and synthesizing evidence such as police documents, medical records, audio and video files, etc.;
- Preparing written investigative reports and summarizing the facts accurately and succinctly;
- Completing field work, including canvassing for witnesses, scheduling and conducting witness interviews, and traveling to where misconduct may have occurred to obtain evidence such as photos, measurements, and video and audio footage;
- Assisting with other investigative and case-related work such as drafting subpoenas, requests for materials, and completing other writing and research assignments as needed;
- Discussing investigative findings and recommendations with supervisors and LEMIO attorneys;
- Documenting all work in record-keeping systems; and
- Providing support for stakeholder outreach and other activities as needed.

Qualifications:

- A bachelor’s degree and at least two (2) years of relevant work experience, preferably in a civil rights or investigative capacity, are required;
- Availability for regular travel in assigned region, a valid New York State Driver’s License, and the ability to operate a motor vehicle are also required;
- Applicants with experience in any of the following areas are strongly encouraged to apply: civil rights issues, investigating police misconduct, using law enforcement databases to complete research, and a knowledge of policing practices and procedures and applicable laws and regulations;

- Strong interpersonal skills, with a preference for demonstrated experience interviewing witnesses about complex and/or sensitive topics, including working with and/or engaging people from historically marginalized communities;
- Proactive and detailed-oriented with strong writing, reasoning, and organization skills;
- Able to work well independently and effectively contribute to a team, including self-managing deadlines/priorities;
- Sound judgement with the ability to handle confidential information with sensitivity and discretion;
- Comfort using technology, including proficiency with Microsoft Word, Excel, and searching social media; and
- Proficiency in other languages, in addition to English, is a plus.
