

Regional Affairs Division
Buffalo Regional Office
Student Mediator
Reference No. BUF_PUGS_2025

Paid, Part-Time Placement for Undergraduate and Graduate Students | Application Deadline is March 28, 2025***

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Buffalo Regional Office is seeking undergraduate and graduate students to serve as student mediators for pay. The office prosecutes businesses and individuals engaged in fraudulent, misleading, deceptive, or illegal trade practices. In addition to litigating, the office mediates thousands of complaints each year from individual consumers. The students will mediate individual complaints filed by consumers against businesses, answer inquiries from the public on a variety of topics, and support investigations into larger patterns of fraud or illegality.

Mediation is an informal process where OAG acts as a neutral third party and attempts to assist consumers and businesses in resolving disputes on a voluntary basis. A large percentage of these complaints are resolved satisfactorily through this process. The student will be assigned a docket of complaint files covering a broad range of consumer issues including retail sales, mail order transactions, credit transactions, telemarketing, warranty problems, home repair, and automobiles.

Students learn interviewing techniques and develop analytical skills. While each complaint is reviewed by an employee, the student typically exercises significant discretion and independent judgment. Professional staff and attorneys are always available to answer questions. The position affords the student an unusual degree of responsibility and requires the student to display excellent judgment.

Student mediators also answer phone inquiries from the public. When the call is related to a consumer matter, the student will assist the caller in filing a complaint and explaining our mediation program. We also receive calls on a range of topics that are not appropriate for our mediation program. In those instances, the students will help those callers find the best assistance possible elsewhere. Extensive and ongoing phone training is provided, and students receive support and coaching from permanent staff. Students develop excellent communication skills, including effectively and productively handling conversations with dissatisfied callers.

Students may have the opportunity to support law enforcement investigations and actions. Please be advised that opportunities to assist with this work will vary depending on the Office's caseload and the nature of the cases currently being handled. Students will also summarize consumer complaints, complete data entry, review business documents, and perform online research assignments. To successfully complete these tasks, students must be very detail oriented.
